Letter of nominations for IUNS Secretary General & Council Members

Dear IUNS

As an Adhering Bodies in good standing, Chinese Nutrition Society (CNS) wish to nominate Prof. Dr Junhua Han for the IUNS Secretary General & Council Members 2025-2029.

Dr Junhua Han is a Professor in Nutrition, Secretary General of Chinese Nutrition Society. She had worked in National Institute of Nutrition and Health of China CDC and the National Center for Food Safety Risk Assessment (CFSA) for about 20 years, engaged in nutrition research and China National Nutrition Regulations and Standards. The main research field of Dr Han include: Nutrition evaluation of genetical modified food, photochemicals, trace elements, trans fatty acids, natinal standards on infant formulas, infant complementary food, special medical food, nutrition labelling, nutrition fortification etc.

Besides the researches, Dr Han had made great contribution to China nutrition regulations. As one of the main authors, Dr Han was responsible for drafting the China National Nutrition Plan (2017-2030) of the State Council. She had led the construction of China's national standard system for nutrition and special dietary foods, served as the head and speaker of the Chinese delegation of the Codex Alimentarius Commission on Nutrition and Food for Special Dietary Uses (CCNFSDU) for years, which has greatly improved China's voice in international affairs. Dr. Han has published more than 70 scientific research articles in both Chinese and English, 7 Monographs as Editor-in-chief, and more than 30 Monographs as co-editor.

Dr Han engaged in the Chinese Nutrtion Society management now and help to promote CNS activities to be successfully carried out. She had also actively participated in the past Asia or international Nutrition Conferences.

Chinese Nutrition Society hereby declare that the above is true, and is proud to nominate Prof. Dr Junhua Han for the IUNS Secretary General & Council Members 2025-2029.

Yours sincerely
